AGRICULTURE OF ITALY

OLIENA AND THE "NEPENTE" WINE.

In Oliena, small town in the province of Nuoro (Sardinia) we have had news about winemaking since 1500. At that time the Franciscans planted 10.000 vines of Cannonau, that here is also called Nepente, from the greek words "Ne"=no and "Penthos"=sadness, so literally no sadness.

It was the famous Italian poet Gabriele D'Annunzio the one who gave the Cannonau of Oliena this special name, during one visit in town when he had the pleasure to taste it.
