GIOIOS

ISOLA DEI NURAGHI IGT - WHITE WINE

The grapes used to produce this wine of unexpected personality come from our vineyards situated at the feet of mountain Corrasi. It is a wine obtained from local red berried grapes vinified in white, straw yellow in colour with notes of white flowers. Good structure and length.

ORIGIN AND PROCESSING

Appellation: Isola dei Nuraghi IGT Bianco.

Varietal Composition: Red local grapes.

Vineyards: About 15 years old, spurred cordon system.

Soil: Decomposed granite soil.

Vinification: The grapes are gently placed in a soft press where they undergo a very light pressing. Only the first-run must is extracted up to 50% and left to settle at cool temperature, then it is tapped and sent to fermentation at 17/18 °C. The wine ages for 6 months with batonnage on fine lees.

TASTING NOTES

Appearance: Straw yellow colour.

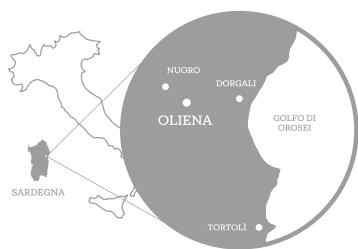

Nose: Aromatic profile of good fragrance with notes of white flowers in evidence.

Taste: Structured white with great personality from red grapes of Sardinian tradition.

Good freshness and pleasant length of flavours.

Alcoholic content: 13,5% Vol.

Serving temperature: Excellent if served at 10/12 °C.
